Thank you from the Constitution
Committee!

Over the past couple of months, many of you took time to give the committee valuable input on our church constitution. Thank you!

Your feedback included:

·32 online survey responses, providing over 2500 words of commentary on the church's proceedings

- 20 interviews
- 42 church members at the first Listening Forum
- 30 church members at the second Listening Forum

In May, the committee read, studied, analyzed, prayed about, and met to discuss your feedback. There is a clear call to move forward with recommending revisions to the constitution. The committee will share specifics of the revision criteria, based on your feedback, at the June business meeting.

365 Prayer Initiative ...is well under way, but you can still be a part of it. There are still 17 days of any month that have not been claimed. From the Pages of the Library

Since Fathers' Day happens in the month of June, here are recommendations of some books about fathers.

Through My Father's Eyes by Franklin Graham

In addition to his role as a beloved evangelist, Billy Graham had another role, as a father. In this book, Franklin Graham details his father's remarkable life from the perspective of one who grew up in the shadow of his father's love.

Let's Have a Daddy Day by Karen Kingsbury

Daddy Days can happen any time because Dad loves spending time with his little ones.

Cabin on Trouble Creek by Jean van Leeuwen

A gripping tale of two boys who learn the ways of survival in the wilderness. Together, they face adventure and danger.

The Road Home by Beverly Lewis (her new book!)

Grieving the death of her parents, Lena Rose Schwartz starts a new life in Lancaster County. Will she find the courage to open her heart?
